CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

OFFICIAL GENEALOGICAL BLOODLINE COMPLETION

Genealogical Research and Ancestral Recognition

Presented to

_____

Full Name of Recipient

The National Council of Indigenous Nations hereby certifies completion of the genealogical research and ancestral bloodline review concerning the above-named individual, within the scope described in the accompanying research report. NCIN acknowledges the ancestral connections supported by the evidence documented in that report.

STATEMENT OF GENEALOGICAL FINDINGS

Based upon the records examined and the analysis documented in Research Report No. _____, dated _____, NCIN records the following conclusion:

_____

Identified ancestor or ancestral family: _____

Documented relationship to the recipient: _____

Associated Indigenous nation or community, where supported by evidence:

_____

BASIS OF COMPLETION AND RECOGNITION

This certification rests upon the sources cited in the accompanying report, which may include vital records, archival documents, census records, family and community records, oral histories, and relevant genetic evidence. The report identifies the weight given to each source, conflicting information, and unresolved questions.

ANCESTRAL RECOGNITION AND CULTURAL PRESERVATION

NCIN honors ancestral identity, family continuity, and Indigenous cultural heritage. Inconsistent names or classifications revealed by the reviewed records are documented with supporting sources. This certificate recognizes ancestral connections to the extent supported by documented evidence.

SCOPE OF CERTIFICATION

Completion refers to the research scope specified in the accompanying report. This certificate attests to NCIN's recorded findings as of issuance. It does not independently confer tribal citizenship or enrollment, establish governmental recognition, grant legal rights, or amend public records. Findings may be revised if additional reliable evidence becomes available.
